The Community Residence program promotes an atmosphere in which residents learn a wide range of living skills. Activities in cooking, banking, cleaning, laundry, hygiene, safety, etc., are taught to residents. Supervision in the Residential Program can range from 24 hours/7 days per week to a few hours per week depending on the needs of the individual. The goal of the Community Residence program is to prepare individuals to reside in their least restrictive, most supportive residential setting.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

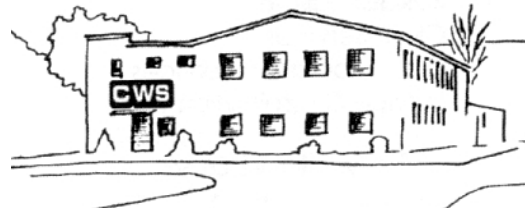

SERVICES THROUGH INTEGRATED EMPLOYMENT

ARC has dedicated itself to meeting the vocational needs of consumers in Chenango Co. for four decades. ARC feels that a vocation allows an individual to experience a true sense of meaning and self worth.

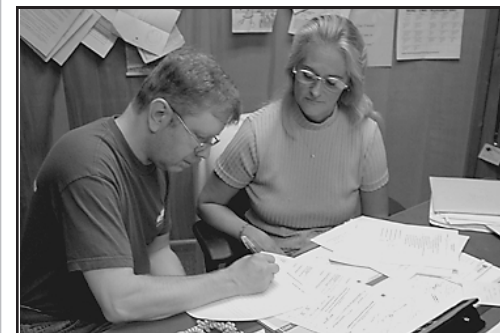

Recreational activities help integration into the community.

SERVICE COORDINATION

This program assists persons with developmental disabilities in gaining access to medical, social, educational, and other services as needed by the individual. It also provides ongoing support, advocacy, and follow-up to ensure that the individual receives the maximum possible benefit from various services. The services may be diagnostic, residential, habilitative, educational, vocational, medical or financial in nature. It ensures the continued growth of the individual.
