

CELEBRATING
94 YEARS OF
CONTINUED PROGRESS

From Blueprints To Completion...

Ninety-Four years ago in 1914 Herman R. Hall started serving the Chenango County Area. He was later joined by son Harold G. Hall.

The family business is located permanently at 88 Cortland Street in Norwich. Today, with the fourth generation, it is managed by Harold's son and daughter who are working to carry on the tradition that was set in 1914.

We offer...a professional approach to remodeling, light commercial projects, new homes and renovations along with all aspects of your building needs.

Design & Construction Contracting

*New Homes • Room Additions
Decks & Patios • Windows & Doors
Porches • Family Rooms
Garages • Roofing
Renovations • Light Commercial
Siding of all types
Kitchens • Baths • New Doors*

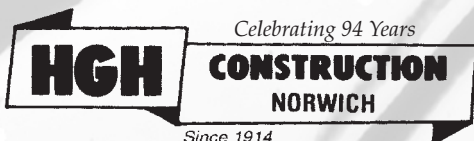

Our goal is simply to provide our customer with designs specifically tailored to their needs and budget and with quality and value, using the finest craftsmen. For 94 years we have delivered on these values.

Our company has built its reputation by employing an experienced group of professional craftsmen with diversified range of skill and talents.

The office and wood working shop is open Monday through Friday or by appointment. Call 334-2176.

Put our many years of growth and experience to work for you.

Four generations of tradition and excellence...

88 Cortland Street • 334-2176

