Welcome to the 29th edition of the Chenango Blues Festival

The many volunteers who help make the Chenango Blues Festival possible look forward to making this the best one yet this weekend. Our goal is to make it a great event for both fans and artists so if you need any help, please, tap one of us on the shoulder.

With the likes of legends like multi-Grammy winner Jimmie Vaughan and rising stars like Soul Artist of the Year Annika Chambers, music is always the highlight of Blues Fest weekend.

You'll be able to enjoy unique experiences that range from the pairing of Corey Harris with Cajun fiddler Cedric Watson on the Tent Stage to the pairing of Chicago guitarist Nick Moss with harmonica virtuoso Denis Gruenling on the Infield Stage.

The Blues genre covers an amazingly diverse range of styles and we try to sample as many as can fit in our twelve-performance lineup.

The festival has many attractions in addition to the music. Craft vendors sell an array of goods and food vendors range from barbeque to Thai food. There is a children's craft area and the campgrounds is a village full of music lovers right on site. Take the time to sample everything our family friendly event has to offer.

Outside the festival has plenty of other things you can enjoy. Norwich's newly renovated Museum District is well worth a visit and the Greenway Conservancy is developing an exciting series of hiking and biking trails in the Stone Quarry. Local bars and restaurants are ready to welcome you and some will feature live music after the festival stages wrap up. It promises to be an exciting weekend however you decide to spend it. The only rule is to relax and enjoy yourself.

GROUND RULES

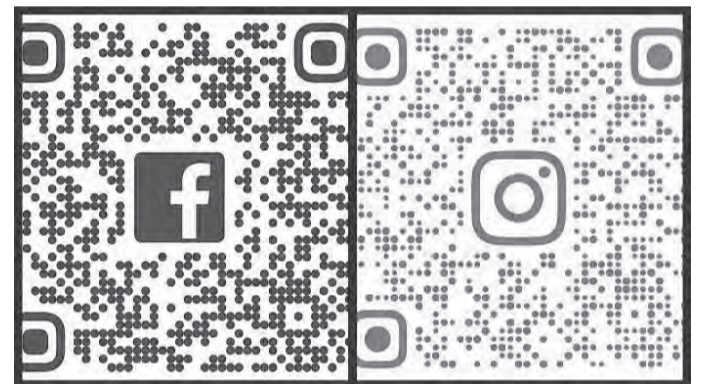

- Please follow all posted Health and Safety rules. We will update these as we get closer to the event.
- Failure to follow rules posted on the day of the event is cause for ejection.
- Smoking of tobacco is allowed on the fairgrounds but is strictly prohibited in all tents and buildings.
- Please don't erect tents, large sun umbrellas or other items that block the view of those behind you. A special area will be designated for tents and sun shades at the rear of the audience area. This area will be expanded this year to enhance social distancing.
- We do allow people to stand directly in front of the stage, so if you would like to enjoy the music from your lawn chair you may want to consider moving back closer to the sound mix area if you don't want someone standing in front of you.
- No pets are allowed on the grounds with the exception of assistance dogs.
- No videotaping or recording of artists' performances per our contracts with them.
- No coolers or glass of any kind are allowed into the festival grounds.
- No food or beverages allowed through festival gates except one unopened liter bottle of water.
- You will be asked to leave if you have brought in your own alcoholic beverages.
- No unauthorized vending, soliciting, petitioning, etc.

29th annual Chenango Blues Fest ready to rock

By SARAH GENTER
SUN STAFF WRITER

CHENANGO COUNTY — This weekend the 29th annual Chenango Blues Fest kicks-off, scheduled for Friday, August 19 and Saturday, August 20 at the Chenango County Fairgrounds.

"It's a great year for us. Jimmie Vaughan is a big headliner for us, we have a really strong lineup. Looking forward to being back to normal and doing the Blues Festival, so I think that will be great," said Chenango Blues Association Event Organizer Eric Larsen. "It's the highlight of the summer for us and hopefully for a lot of people as well."

The weekend's festivities will actually begin on Thursday, August 18, with another installment of the NBT Bank Free Summer Concert Series. Opening the evening will be local group the Nate Gross

Attendees at the 2021 Chenango Blues Fest. This year's festival is scheduled for Friday, August 19 and Saturday, August 20 at the Chenango County Fairgrounds, and features a high-caliber lineup of twelve performers and bands. (Photo by Sarah Genter)

Band at 7 p.m., and at 8 p.m. Mike Zito's Big Band will take the East Park stage.

Friday's show will be free to attend, with parking opening at 4:30 p.m. and the festival gates opening at 5 p.m. The Hi-Jivers will kick off the show at 5:30 p.m., followed by Angel Forrest at 7:15 p.m., and lastly Popa Chubby taking the stage at 9 p.m.

On Saturday, parking gates will open at 10 a.m., with the festival gates officially opening at 11 a.m. Throughout the day, nine high-caliber bands and artists will be rocking the fairgrounds on the infield stage and tent stage.

Taking the infield stage at 11:30 a.m. will be the Misty Blues Band, followed by Annika Chambers at 12:30 p.m., Altered Five Blues Band at 2:45 p.m., and Nick Moss and special guest Dennis Gruenling performing at 5 p.m. The final infield stage performance will begin at 7:30 p.m., featuring headliner Jimmie Vaughan.

Shows on the tent stage will begin at 1:45 p.m. with Corey Harris and Cedric Watson. At 4 p.m., the EG Kight Trio will be hitting the stage, followed by Teresa James and the Rhythm Tramps, and a 9 p.m. performance by Southern Avenue to close out the day.

Attendees can expect a return to the Blues Fest they remember this year, as Larsen said this year's festival is a far cry from the ever-changing COVID guidelines and restrictions seen last summer.

"I was looking through all my notes from last year, I always review everything, and we jot down a lot of stuff for next year. I was looking at all the notes we had for all the different things that were related to the restrictions, and it was a lot easier to manage that process this year," he said. "We always encourage anybody who feels like they might be sick that they should probably stay away. But other than that, we don't have any protocols."

Tickets to the Chenango Blues Fest are available now at SimpleTix.com, and are $45 a piece. Tent camping tickets are also available up until the day of the event for $80 per person.

Larsen said RV tickets, which are $50 extra for basic sites and $75 extra for enhanced sites, are still available as well. However, they're going fast.

"Tent camping will be no problem right up until that Friday, and tent camping they can pay at the door. RVs will most likely be sold out. We have a few more, they can buy them now, but we don't sell them at the door and if anybody wants them they should buy it ASAP, because there's only a few left," said Larsen.

This year's festival will also feature a new addition — a raffle contest for an electric guitar crafted by former Norwich resident Mike Aronson.

"We had a former Norwich resident, Mike

Aronson, who has gotten into making custom guitars, and he's made them for some big blues artists that have commissioned him to make guitars. And he made us one to raffle off to benefit the Blues Festival, and it's a beautiful guitar," said Larsen.

Raffle tickets are $5 a piece, and can be purchased at the Summer Concert Series show on Thursday, August 18, as well as at the Chenango Blues Fest. The winner will be drawn at the festival on Saturday, August 20, but does not have to be present to win.

All the money raised from the raffle will go to the Chenango Blues Association, to help them continue to put on the annual Blues Fest and Summer Concert Series.

"It helps us cover all of our expenses," Larsen explained. "You know, every year it's just getting more and more difficult to manage the cost of production, so every little bit helps."

Attendees of the 29th annual Chenango Blues Fest can also enjoy plenty of delicious food on Saturday. Vendors include Big Zeus Barbeque, Lekkie's Thai, Birdsong Cafe, Mama Shep's, Tuller's, Nina's Pizzeria, Brake from the Grind, TacoCat Food Truck, Stathis Greek Food, and Gilligan's Ice Cream.

Several craft vendors and entertainers will be in attendance as well, including Allyne Studios, Amazulu, Blue Wave Records, Fly Dye Clothing Company, Earth and Air Wellness, Simply Primitive, Cook Maple Syrup Products, Custom Engraving Products, Jasmine Moon Wellness, Golden Hands Design, and the Palm Reading Lady.

The 2022 Chenango Blues Fest and Summer Concert Series was made possible by the support of several sponsors, including NBT Bank, Norwich Rehabilitation and Nursing Center, Loral Management, Raymond Corporation, Southern Tier Pet Nutrition, Oliver's Campers, Flanagan Law Office, NYCM Insurance, Walking Ridge Development, SUNY Morrisville Norwich Campus, Rentals To Go, Build Block CNY, The Evening Sun, the Pennysaver, and NYS Music.

Larsen said the support of the community also plays a big role in keeping the events going each summer.

"I encourage people to come," said Larsen. "We do ten days of programming, nine of them are free. We charge for one day, so we really hope people will come out and support us because it's a really important part of keeping the organization going forward."

More information on the 29th annual Chenango Blues Fest can be found at ChenangoBluesFest.org or on the Chenango Blues Association Facebook page.

2022 Featured Performers

Friday, August 19

Hi-Jivers

The Hi-Jivers pay tribute to the Rock N' Roll and Rhythm & Blues of the '50s and '60s through their raw, wild originals and passionate covers. Their greatest influences include Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Magic Sam, Wynonie Harris, Big Mama Thornton, Johnny Guitar Watson, Little Walter, Chuck Berry and Ike Turner. Since moving to Nashville in 2014 (Dawna and Austin from Syracuse, NY, and Hank from Seattle, WA) The Hi-Jivers have played extensively in Nashville and beyond, performing at festivals such as Viva Las Vegas Rockabilly Weekender, The Nashville Boogie Vintage Weekender, and NYS Blues Festival. The band appeared on the cover of Blue Suede News Magazine's Spring 2018 issue, were featured in Vintage Rock Magazine, and appeared on Acme Radio Live in November, 2018.

Angel Forrest

In 1988, Angel Forrest began a musical career which would span over three decades – and counting. Her tribute show to the legendary Janis Joplin brought Angel into the public eye. She's won several awards, including Lys Blues Album of the Year, Songwriter of the year and a nomination for Recording of the Year for her album "Mother Tongue Blues". The Montreal artist was named Female Vocalist of the Year 7 times by the Toronto Blues Society between 2013 and 2021. The 2018 Memphis International Blues Challenge Finalist sings in the whole country, blues and rock spectrum.

Popa Chubby

Popa Chubby, born Ted Horowitz, has been hard rocking the blues in his fierce and soulful way for more than 30 years. Over the course of a career that dates back to 1994, he has been a force of to be reckoned with on the guitar, and his tempestuous, soulful playing has never been more powerful. An imposing figure with a shaven head, tattooed arms, a goatee and a performance style he describes as "the Stooges meets Buddy Guy, Motörhead meets Muddy Waters, and Jimi Hendrix meets Robert Johnson," Popa Chubby is an endearing character who is one of the genre's most popular figures.

2022 Featured Performers

Saturday, August 20

Misty Blues Band

2019 International Blues Challenge finalist, Misty Blues, is led by lead singer/band founder Gina Coleman. The band is based out of Berkshire County, Massachusetts playing original and traditional blues with hints of jazz, soul, funk and tent revival gospel since 1999. The band has recorded with Charles Neville, Justin Johnson, Big Lou Johnson and Joe Louis Walker. The band has also opened for contemporary blues artists like Tab Benoit, Roomful Of Blues, John Primer, Albert Cummings and Michael Powers. Misty Blues performs extensively throughout New England and has toured New York City, Harrisburg, Mishawaka, Knoxville, Birmingham, Montgomery, Muscle Shoals, Clarksdale, Memphis, New Orleans and Ontario Canada. The band recently earned the 2021 CFAB Music Realm Best Entertainer Award and has amassed several Independent Blues Award nominations. The band's original

Annika Chambers

Whether on stage or in private life, these two internationally renowned artists are a perfect match! Since meeting in 2018 at the International Blues Challenge in Memphis, Tennessee, renowned Québec bluesman Paul DesLauriers and great American soul and blues singer Annika Chambers have united their artistic destiny to the great joy of those who have had the chance to see them on stage.

Annika Chambers, like so many powerful vocal artists, can trace her love of music back to early childhood.

It was during her tour of duty in the US Army that her career began. Her colonel, having heard her singing, asked her to sing the Anthem for a ceremony. She was an immediate hit, and from that moment on, she sang at all the ceremonies and then on a support tour for the soldiers in Kosovo and Iraq.

Returning to Houston in 2011 brought the creation of her musical project. Bassist Larry Fulcher (2012 inductee to the Blues Hall of Fame) and producer/musician Richard Cagle of Montrose Records recruited her for her debut album, "Making My Mark", which climbed blues charts across the US and Europe. She won the Blues Music Award in May 2019 as the Best soul and blues singer in the United States. She is now expanding her touring network in Québec, Canada and Scandinavia.

Corey Harris & Cedric Watson

Corey Harris is a guitarist, vocalist, songwriter and band leader who has carved out his own niche in blues. A powerful singer and accomplished guitarist, he has performed, recorded, and toured with many of the top names in music such as BB King, Taj Mahal, Buddy Guy, R.L. Burnside, Ali Farka Toure, Dave Matthews Band, Tracy Chapman, Olu Dara, Wilco, and others.

In 2003 Harris was a featured artist and narrator of the Martin Scorsese film, "Feel Like Going Home," which traced the evolution of blues from West Africa to the southern U.S. In 2007, he was awarded a $500,000 MacArthur Fellowship — commonly referred to as a "genius award" — from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation. He was also awarded an honorary Doctor of Music degree from Bates College, in Lewiston, Maine.

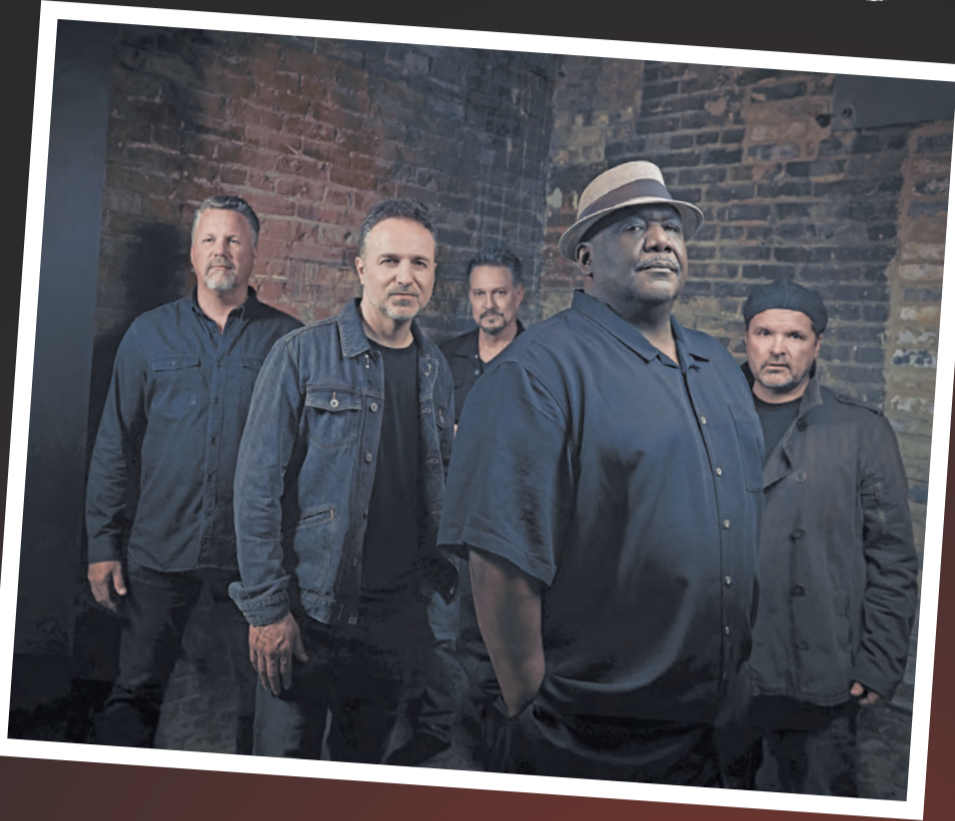

Cedric Watson is one of the brightest young talents to emerge in Cajun, Creole and Zydeco (Louisiana French) music over the last decade. Cedric Watson is a four-time Grammy-nominated fiddler, singer, accordionist & songwriter with seemingly unlimited potential. With an apparently bottomless repertoire of songs at his fingertips, Cedric plays everything from forgotten Creole melodies and obscure Dennis McGee reels to more modern Cajun and Zydeco songs, even occasionally throwing in a bluegrass fiddle tune or an old string band number.

He is also a prolific songwriter, writing almost all of his songs on his double row Hohner accordion. Cedric's songs channel his diverse ancestry (African, French, Native American and Spanish) to create his own brand of sounds.

Altered Five Blues Band

This hip Milwaukee quintet is known for its strong brew of tough, original blues and hard-hitting live shows. Blues Blast raves that barrel-chested front man Jeff Taylor possesses a "smooth, warm-toned voice as monumental and undeniable as Howlin' Wolf with the finish and flourish of B.B. King." Downbeat declares stealth guitarist Jeff Schroedl "reaches the high bar of mixed invention and fluidity." Fueled by a rhythm section laying down the deepest grooves this side of the MGs, the five blues blasters hit the ground running 20 years ago and show no sign of easing up.

EG Kight Trio

Through the years Kight has developed her own unique sound. Creative Loafing magazine noted that on her new record "Kight is in strong, smooth, controlled voice throughout the record, with dollops of Phoebe Snow, Bonnie Raitt, and even Patsy Cline injected with a dose of Southern charm, class, and a touch of gospel."

Kight was the epitome of "Americana" before there was a genre. And in a world that seemingly needs to put a label on everything, it's clear that Kight's own "country flavored southern fried blues" straddles the line between Americana and Blues, and gives the listener a hefty dose of the best of both worlds.

Nick Moss Band featuring Dennis Gruenling

Blues guitar virtuoso Nick Moss and harmonica wizard Dennis Gruenling have been on a winning streak since they first joined forces in 2016. With relentless nonstop touring and the release of their Alligator Records debut, The High Cost Of Low Living, in 2018, The Nick Moss Band Featuring Dennis Gruenling has been playing for wildly enthusiastic fans and winning over critics and radio programmers worldwide.

Debuting at #3 on the Billboard Blues Chart, the album topped many 2018 "Best Of" lists. UK tastemaker magazine Mojo said, "Guitarist and singer Nick Moss shows the world his fearsome guitar chops and his complete familiarity with the great tradition of Chicago blues music. Partnered with harmonica-player Dennis Gruenling, Moss creates a two-headed monster that takes the band thundering through crisp originals."

Although Moss and Gruenling had known each other for 20 years and had jammed together often. On stage, the two communicate seemingly telepathically, as Moss lays down the deepest blues licks and Gruenling's harmonica wails and howls in perfect response, with Moss' top-notch band completing the ensemble with their energy and expertise.

2022 Featured Performers Saturday, August 20

Teresa James and the Rhythm Tramps

Keyboardist Teresa James and her band, the Rhythm Tramps, have long reigned as one of Los Angeles' leading contemporary blues outfits, even though their uncommonly imaginative repertoire, much of it supplied by Terry Wilson, James' husband, producer, and bassist, is by no means strictly limited to the 12-bar form. Their 2019 CD Here in Babylon was nominated for a Grammy in the Contemporary Blues Album category.

Soon to have a full dozen albums under their collective belt spanning 23 exciting years, Teresa James & the Rhythm Tramps remain a staple of the Los Angeles-area blues scene in addition to an international touring artist, with a sound all their own. Moving easily from Texas-style grease and blues into Memphis soul or New Orleans-flavored grooves and all points in between with fun and abandonment, as one critic said, "there are no clichés in this band."

Southern Avenue

Memphis-based, Grammy nominated, Southern Avenue inked their first record deal with legendary Stax Records in 2016. The first Memphis band signed to Stax in over 40 years, their self-titled debut was an immediate phenomenon, reaching #1 on iTunes' "Top Blues Albums" chart before being honored with the 2018 Blues Music Award for "Best Emerging Artist Album." 2019's Keep On proved an even greater success, debuting among the top 5 on Billboard's "Top Blues Albums" chart amidst worldwide critical acclaim, ultimately earning Southern Avenue their first Grammy Award nomination, for "Best Contemporary Blues Album."

In addition to the early success that the band has had with their recordings, they have also found a home on the road. The band has performed in 15 countries on three continents and averages over 150 shows in a typical year, making the group one of the most sought-after live performance experiences. Their high-energy shows have captivated audiences around the globe, making this eclectic group a must-see at venues and festivals alike.

Jimmie Vaughan

When it comes to the blues today, there are a handful of guiding lights to make sure the music stays true to its powerful source. The sound of pleasure and pain that first sparked musicians to create such a sound is a force that can never be underestimated. The mojo has to be there. For Jimmie Vaughan, he's dedicated his life to making sure the blues not only stays alive, but remains full of life and an inspiration to all who listen. It's a spirit he holds close to him, and for over 50 years of holding the blues close inside him, Vaughan isn't about to stop now.

"Playing what you feel has always been my main goal," Vaughan says. Considering the Texas guitarist and singer has had the kind of career that makes him a living legacy, those are no idle words.

Jimmie Vaughan's new album, Baby, Please Come Home, is a rolling and righteous celebration of everything the blues can be. The songs can go up, down, sideways and even off in their own distinctive direction, but one thing is certain, each and every one of them is packed with pure feeling and striking originality. That's because while the blues is almost as old as America itself, every time a musician lends their soul to living inside these songs, something new comes out.

Mission

The Chenango Blues Association (C.B.A) is a nonprofit 501(C)3 organization whose mission is to foster an appreciation of uniquely American music forms including blues, jazz, zydeco and gospel. We strive to accomplish this by presenting the highest caliber of artists in diverse settings for the lowest possible cost. This strategy is designed to make the music accessible to as many people as possible.

Our Organization

The Chenango Blues Fest is the 2016 recipient of The Blues Foundations Keeping the Blues Alive award as well as a two time recipient of the Russell J. Perlman Award for the most outstanding project to apply for a NYS Decentralization grant, which is administered by the Chenango Arts Fund.

All the activities of C.B.A. are governed by a volunteer board of directors consisting of thirteen community members drawn from Chenango County. There is no paid staff and no office expense so all contributions directly increase our ability to expand programming.

The major activities of the C.B.A. are a mid-August Blues Festival weekend held at the Chenango County Fairgrounds, 168 East Main St. in Norwich, NY and a Free Summer Concert Series held in East Park, Norwich in which we present different genres of music including Zydeco, Jazz, Bluegrass, Big-Band Swing orchestra, Americana, Country Rock and Reggae. These events collectively draw thousands of people from throughout the Northeast.

Thursday, August 18 — Mike Zito Big Band

The Mike Zito Big Band is scheduled to play in East Park on Thursday with the Nate Gross Band opening for them. Considered by many to be the unofficial kick-off to the weekend. Many Blues fans come in early to make it a 3-day weekend. We always encourage people to check out the area (Museum District, YMCA and the Greenway, local restaurants and clubs) during the day on Friday before the Festival opens late Friday afternoon.

Mike Zito is an American guitarist, singer, record producer, and songwriter from St. Louis, Missouri and one of the most lauded artists in the contemporary blues arena today, and rightfully so. Zito has won BMAs in the categories of Blues Rock Artist as well as Blues Rock Album of the Year for Mike Zito and Friends – Rock 'n' Roll: A Tribute to Chuck Berry. His album, Resurrection won a 2022 Blues Music Award.

Last Show of the Season — Trigger Hippy

Trigger Hippy's music harnesses their collective roots in Country, Delta blues, R&B, Gospel and Southern rock. Trigger Hippy co-founder, Black Crowes drummer Steve Gorman and songwriter/bassist Nick Govrik first met at a Nashville jam session in 2004. "We hit it off right away" says Govrik "and we've been doing it virtually non stop since." There have been an evolving group of collaborators over the years before the current lineup of multi instrumentalist Ed Jurdi (Band of Heathens) and vocalist/sax player Amber Woodhouse emerged. It's the culmination of a long journey, and the new lineup demonstrates a new commitment to great music built on a solid foundation.

Volunteers

Volunteers are what makes the Chenango Blues Fest different from most other music festivals.

We take a lot of pride in being friendly and affordable and that pride is fueled by volunteers. They organize and manage every aspect of the event - making it a year round effort for many.

They also set up the grounds, take your ticket, provide the hospitality, distribute posters and flyers, load stage equipment, help with artists merchandise and do so many things large and small that help the festival run. That friendly vibe you feel?

That's powered by fans like you - thanks to each and every one of you for being part of the best weekend of the year.

This event is organized entirely by unpaid volunteers. Please thank them!

Organizing Committee

Eric Larsen, Pam Larsen, Steven Palmatier, Linda Palmatier, Pat Dietrich, Eileen Andrews, Mark Norfolk, John Rutan, AJ Oliver, Rachel Flanagan, Dan Heuer, Lindsey Miles, Todd Rutan.

Board Members Emeritus: Greg Grosvenor and Tim Andrews

In Memory of past Board of Director members - Joe Portelli and John Blenis

Stage and Sound

Sam Distefano, Dave Jennings, George Anderson, Calvin Crouch, Nate McLachlan

Grounds

Canasawacta Country Club, Rob Vidal, Steve Cummings. Many thanks

also to the volunteers who helped prepare the grounds and set up for the festival!

Marketing

Steve Craig, Mark Drnek, Mealey Electric, Susan/Jeff Webster and family, Evening Sun/Pennysaver, NYS Music, Lindsey Miles Photography. Also want to send a big shout out to all of those who volunteered to hang flyers, distribute postcards and those who shared information about our events on social media! We rely on our fans to help us get the word out... Thank you!

Hospitality

Lowes, Park Place, Rita's Tavern, S&S, Barefoot Winery, Denny's Liquors, Empire Distributing, Norwich Beverage, Soul Sweet, Mary Bard, Annmarie and Brenna Baker, Linda Heuer, Elizabeth and Trinity Alderman, Jane Wilbur. Flowers by Michelle Cook of Flat Iron Farm.

Ticket Booth

A shout out to the small army of friendly ticket volunteers at our gates who welcome festival goers and start their Chenango Blues Festival experience off right!

Artist Merchandise Tent

Thanks to our volunteers 100% of the profit of CD sales go to the Artists!

Camping

Thank you to Nancy Joslyn and the entire Camping Volunteer Crew for all you do to keep the campgrounds at the Blues Fest running smoothly!

Children's Activities

Our thanks to Creative Works for running the Build Block CNY Children's Activities area.

Additional Thanks

Thanks also to Mike Aronson who handmade a gorgeous guitar for us to raffle off as a fundraiser for the Chenango Blues Association.

We'd also like to thank the City of Norwich for their assistance with flying our speakers for the Thursday night NBT Bank Summer Concert shows in East Park all summer!

The Chenango Blues Festival has over 100 people volunteering their time each year, some for many hours per week, 52 weeks out of the year and others who volunteer for a shift the day of the festival. ALL are appreciated! The volunteerism helps keep costs for our fans affordable. Thank you for all you do!

If you need help today, please look for the green shirts of our staff or the red shirts of our security team.

First aid is available at the First Aid Building on the north fence of the grounds.

Lost and Found- Please take any item you find to our Security at the Festival's Main Entrance Gate.
