

$1,000 Scholarships To Be Awarded

Norwich, New York: The Chenango County Fair announces today that ten $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to current New York State high school seniors and also students enrolled in college. The New York Association of Agricultural Fairs and the New York Showpeople's Association sponsor the scholarships.

The qualifying students must be active at the Chenango County Fair. All applicants from Chenango County must submit their application through the Chenango County Fair no later than Friday, April 3.

Information is available at the Fair Office, 168 East Main Street, Norwich, New York, through Cornell Cooperative Extension of Chenango County and from local high school offices. Applications must be printed and completed from the web at www.nyfairs.org.

For more information, contact the Chenango County Fair Office at 607-334-9198. ➡